

STEVEN MUELLER ARCHITECTS

Steven Mueller Architects, LLC is a boutique architectural firm located in the heart of Greenwich. The firm's work exemplifies a personal commitment to achieving the finest architectural expression through a cooperative relationship with the client. Each project is designed to enhance the lives of the occupants by developing practical, dynamic, and creative solutions.

SMA is a full-service enterprise dedicated to design excellence specializing in architecture, planning, construction, and interior design. There is a sincere commitment to working creatively and administratively with maximum efficiency on each project.

From estates to cottages, each project begins with a dialogue between Steven Mueller and the client. A design concept, created in response to the client's ideas and desires, establishes architectural imagery, style, and space. This informed process ultimately results in a residence of distinction.

Visit SMA's award-winning website to see a plethora of the firm's architectural projects ranging from new construction to renovations.

Steven Mueller received his architectural degree from The Ohio State University. Steven has been practicing architecture since 1977 and has been in private practice since 1993. He is a licensed architect currently registered in the states of Connecticut, New York, and Massachusetts, and is certified by the National Council of Architectural Registration Boards.

In addition, he is a registered interior designer licensed in Connecticut. Professional memberships include the American Institute of Architects, the Connecticut Society of Architects, and the National Trust for Historic Preservation.
